Police Seek Suspect in Bank Robbery Firearm used to rob First Republic Bank

Danville Police are seeking a suspect in connection with the Thursday morning armed robbery of First Republic Bank.

Police Chief Allan Shields said at approximately 11:53 a.m., July 12, 2018, officers responded to the First Republic Bank at 680 Hartz Avenue for a report of an armed Bank Robbery. In the incident, the suspect reportedly brandished a firearm and demanded money from a teller. After taking an undisclosed amount of cash, the suspect fled north on Hartz Avenue toward School Street. No injuries were reported in the incident.

The suspect is described as a white male with fair complexion and acne scars, 6' 1", 260-270 lbs, 40-50 years old, wearing tan cargo pants, a salmon polo shirt and a white hat with the American flag on it.
